

The Halmouth Enterprise

Friday, June 22, 2012

DON PARKINSON/ENTERPRISE

Jonathan Pheeny works in one of his gardens at the Fairwinds Clubhouse on Katharine Lee Bates Road. Erika Sloan and Kyle Sloane—both with Fellowship Health Resources, which runs Fairwinds and other places like it—were on hand making a video about Jonathan and the progress he is making with the gardens. Jonathan is doing the gardens as part of the Studio 35 program, which uses creative arts (music, art, horticulture) as a therapeutic approach to mental health recovery.