

Dziobek earns Award of Excellence

DZIOBEK

LINCOLN
– The National Council for Community Behavioral Healthcare has selected Joe Dziobek, president and CEO of Fellowship

Health Resources, as a recipient of its Awards of Excellence.

Honored as a Visionary Leader, Dziobek is committed to his field, a noted entrepreneur and successful risk-taker who has worked to support FHR's mission for nearly 40 years, according to a news release.

Headquartered in Lincoln, FHR is a nonprofit behavioral healthcare agency providing clinical and support services to persons recovering from mental illness, co-occurring disorders, and other life challenges.
